PRE-SERVICE MUSIC “Jesus You Are My Life” video with lyrics
Take a moment to listen to the Maranatha Singers perform this inspiring song.

WELCOME/ANNOUNCEMENTS

To our first-time guests, “Welcome! I pray God’s richest blessings to those of you who are worshipping with us this morning on TV. When you think about it, what a miracle has been given to us to worship together this way.

I had a wonderful call from one of my cousins now living in Washington State who found our website and watched our Easter Service. So Marilyn, if you’re watching again this week, thank you for worshipping with us! If you are living in the Metro East St. Louis area, please stop by and worship with us when the quarantine is lifted.

By now I’m sure you have all heard the news that Pastor Matt and Hailey Kusch are the proud parents of a little boy, Daniel Russell Kusch, who was born this past Tuesday at 12:10 AM. Before you feel sorry for them for delivering at the wee hours of the morning, let me tell you that Hailey’s labor and delivery was around 3 hours! Daniel apparently couldn’t wait to meet his parents and came in a big hurry! Surgery?

Some tough news for us came also on this past Tuesday, when we learned that Pastor Brian Downs from Zion, Belleville suffered a serious heart attack. He was rushed to the hospital and had an emergency surgery to have the blockage opened. I understand he’s doing much better.

The Adult Bible Class is meeting today on Zoom at 10:00 AM. If you came to the 10:45 service this morning you missed it. If you are interested in joining please send me an email expressing your desire to join us. We are working our way through 1 Samuel, and will be excavating the 23rd chapter today. You can just listen if you wish, but the beauty is you can share your thoughts with the class. And if you’re still in your pajamas, you don’t have to turn your video camera on.

We are so looking forward to seeing the end of this quarantine. Indications are we might see some businesses opening up soon, but I'm sure this will all happen very gradually and safely.

I hope this time of isolation has been a time for spiritual reflection. There are many opportunities online to study God's Word. If you haven't got the word, let me tell you that you have access to a website called rightnowmedia.com. There are so many studies, conferences, children's programming available that I know you'll enjoy. Contact me by email and I will send you a link to register. There is NO Cost to you!

INVOCATION

P: In the name of the Father and of the ☩ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

OPENING SENTENCES Romans 6:9; John 20:29b

P: Alleluia. We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again;

C: death no longer has dominion over Him. Alleluia.

P: Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.

C: Alleluia, alleluia.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION Psalm 85:1-2, 7

P: LORD, You were favorable to Your land;

C: You restored the fortunes of Jacob.

P: You forgave the iniquity of Your people;

C: You covered all their sin.

P: Show us Your steadfast love, O LORD,

C: and grant us Your salvation.

P: Having been shown His divine favor through Jesus Christ, let us then confess our sins unto our gracious Lord.

P: Almighty God,

C: in humility and with repentant hearts we come before You. With shame and regret we admit and confess our sinfulness. We have not lived up to our calling as Your peaceable people. We have not done the good You demand and have not been the people You would have us be. We are truly sorry for our sins and seek by the help of Your Holy Spirit to amend our sinful ways. Have mercy on us, merciful Father, for the sake of Your beloved Son, Jesus. Forgive us all that needs Your forgiving grace, and with the power of the Holy Spirit, direct us to serve You faithfully all our days through Jesus Christ, our Lord.

P: Nothing, nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus. Out of His great mercy, God has promised to forgive us when we repent and seek His merciful forgiveness. As Christ rose from the grave and appeared to His disciples, reviving them and speaking words of peace, so now I declare to you His abiding peace: In His stead and by His command of my Lord Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven. Peace be with you; in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

SHARING THE PEACE

P: In our Gospel for today, we hear the account of that special moment when Jesus was reunited with His disciples for the first time after His resurrection. John records that His first words to them were “Peace be with you!”

As disciples of our Lord Jesus Christ, we have the opportunity to share that most special peace that our Lord first shared in the room behind closed doors as we greet one another today. Though our doors may be locked for fear of the Corona virus, Jesus cannot be locked out of our homes! Let us take a moment to share His words of Peace with those who are with us. Peace be with you!

SONG OF PRAISE

“Jesus, Strong and Kind”
“Stronger”

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P: Let us pray.

Almighty God, grant that we who have celebrated the Lord's resurrection may by Your grace confess in our life and conversation that Jesus is Lord and God; through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

FIRST LESSON Acts 5:29–42 (The first Christians proclaim the Good News.)

But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

When they heard this, they were enraged and wanted to kill them. But a Pharisee in the council named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law held in honor by all the people, stood up and gave orders to put the men outside for a little while. And he said to them, "Men of Israel, take care what you are about to do with these men. For before these days Theudas rose up, claiming to be somebody, and a number of men, about four hundred, joined him. He was killed, and all who followed him were dispersed and came to nothing. After him Judas the Galilean rose up in the days of the census and drew away some of the people after him. He too perished, and all who followed him were scattered. So in the present case I tell you, keep away from these men and let them alone, for if this plan or this undertaking is of man, it will fail; but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You might even be found opposing God!" So they took his advice, and when they had called in the apostles, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. Then they left the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for the name. And every day, in the temple and from house to house, they did not cease teaching and preaching that the Christ is Jesus.

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE 1 Peter 1:3–9 (We have new hope through the resurrection of Christ.)

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who by God's power are being guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, though now for a little while, if necessary, you have been grieved by various trials, so that the tested genuineness of your faith—more precious than gold that perishes though it is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Though you have not seen him, you love him. Though you do not now see him, you believe in him and rejoice with joy that is inexpressible and filled with glory, obtaining the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

L: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

HOLY GOSPEL John 20:19–31 (Jesus appears to His disciples who are behind locked doors.)

P: The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the twentieth chapter.

C: Glory to You, O Lord.

On the evening of that day, the first day of the week, the doors being locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, even so I am sending you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you withhold forgiveness from any, it is withheld."

Now Thomas, one of the twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails, and place my hand into his side, I will never believe."

Eight days later, his disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands; and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

P: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to You, O Christ.
