We begin our worship today in honor of God's Son, Jesus, who became flesh to show us the way to God, to bring us the truth of His person and work, and to give us the resurrected life now in time, and in the life to come.

INVOCATION

P: In the name of the Father and of the + Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

OPENING SENTENCES    adapt. from *Matthew 28:7; Hebrews 2:7; Psalm 8:6

P: Christ has risen from the dead.

C: God the Father has crowned Him with glory and honor,

P: He has given Him dominion over the works of His hands;

C: He has put all things under His feet.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

P: Alleluia! Christ is risen!

C: He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

P: Holy God,

C: we lower our heads before You and we confess that we have often forgotten that we are Yours. Sometimes we carry on our lives as if there was no God and we fall short of being credible witnesses to You. For these things we ask Your forgiveness and we also ask for Your strength. Holy God, in the daily round from sunrise to sunset, remind us again of your holy presence hovering near us and in us. Free us from shame and self-doubt. Help us to see You in the moment-by-moment possibilities and to live like the first Christian martyr Stephen: honestly, courageously, and with the voice of godly wisdom to the glory of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

P: Because of our Lord's mercy God has redeemed us through the sacrifice of His beloved Son, Jesus. And now it is as Peter said: "You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy." Therefore, in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen.

SHARING OF THE PEACE

SONG OF PRAISE            "Everlasting God"

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P: Let us pray.

O God, You make the minds of Your faithful to be of one will. Grant that we may love what You have commanded and desire what You promise, that among the many changes of this world our hearts may be fixed where true joys are found; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

FIRST READING for the 5th Sunday of Easter is from the Acts of the Apostles, chapters 6 & 7, the account of Stephen's Martyrdom    *Acts 6:1–9; 7:2a, 51–60

Now in these days when the disciples were increasing in number, a complaint by the Hellenists arose against the Hebrews because their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution. And the twelve summoned the full number of the disciples and said, "It is not right that we should give up preaching the word of God to serve tables. Therefore, brothers, pick out from among you seven men of good repute, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we will appoint to this duty. But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." And what they said pleased the whole gathering, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch. These they set before the apostles, and they prayed and laid their hands on them.

And the word of God continued to increase, and the number of the disciples multiplied greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests became obedient to the faith.

And Stephen, full of grace and power, was doing great wonders and signs among the people. Then some of those who belonged to the synagogue of the Freedmen (as it was called), and of the Cyrenians, and of the Alexandrians, and of those from Cilicia and Asia, rose up and disputed with Stephen.

And Stephen said:

“Brothers and fathers, hear me... “You stiff-necked people, uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit. As your fathers did, so do you. Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who announced beforehand the coming of the Righteous One, whom you have now betrayed and murdered, you who received the law as delivered by angels and did not keep it.”

Now when they heard these things they were enraged, and they ground their teeth at him. But he, full of the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. And he said, “Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.” But they cried out with a loud voice and stopped their ears and rushed together at him. Then they cast him out of the city and stoned him. And the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. And as they were stoning Stephen, he called out, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.” And falling to his knees he cried out with a loud voice, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them.” And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

Lector: This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE     1 Peter 2:2–10

(A living stone and a holy people)

Like newborn infants, long for the pure spiritual milk, that by it you may grow up into salvation— if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good.

As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men but in the sight of God chosen and precious, you yourselves like living stones are being built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in Scripture:

“Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone,
a cornerstone chosen and precious,
and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame.”

So the honor is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe,

“The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone,”

and

“A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense.”

They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do.

But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.

Lector:       This is the Word of the Lord.   People:       Thanks be to God.

VERSE       Romans 6:9; John 14:23

P: Alleluia. We know that Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; death no longer has dominion over Him. Alleluia.

C: If anyone loves Me, he will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him. Alleluia.

P:     The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the fourteenth chapter.

C:     Glory to You, O Lord.

“Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way to where I am going.” Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?” Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him.”

Philip said to him, “Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us.” Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you so long, and you still do not know me, Philip? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own authority, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, or else believe on account of the works themselves.

“Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it.

P:     This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C:     Praise to You, O Christ.

HYMN No. 526     “You Are the Way; through You Alone”

You are the way; through You alone    Can we the Father find;
In You, O Christ, has God revealed    His heart and will and mind.

You are the truth, your Word alone    True wisdom can impart;
You only can inform the mind    And purify the heart.

You are the life; the empty tomb    Proclaims your conqu’ring arm;
And those who put their trust in you    Not death nor hell shall harm.

You are the way, the truth, the life; Grant us that way to know,
That truth to keep, that life to win, Whose joys eternal flow.

P: Creator God, today we set aside this Sunday to offer You special thanks for our mothers.

Some of our mothers are with us every day and night, loving us with their attention and humble service, tirelessly attending us through their daily routines of working, teaching, mentoring, cooking, cleaning, washing clothes, and still finding the energy to tuck us into bed at night with a kiss. We bless You for the gift they are to us.

Some of our mothers living far away can only speak to us through electronic devices. Bridge the miles between them and their children and Help them to know the gratefulness and love of their children.

Some of our mothers are living in dire situations due to age and/or illness, and are unable to respond to the affections of their children. Break through those barriers by Your grace that these precious mothers may be given the awareness of those precious moments of affection.

Some of our mothers are grieving today because they have lost a child through miscarriage or premature death, and have no child with whom to share this special day. O Lord God, Pour out a special measure of Your grace and grant them divine comfort and peace in this tragic absence. Fill their emptiness with an overflowing of Your Spirit's presence.

Some of our Mothers, Lord of Heaven, You have taken to their eternal rest and we have but bits and pieces of cheerful memories. Grant us the ability to hold onto those memories with joyful admiration and thankfulness for the days we shared together.

(written for the Time of COVID-19) Tune: On Galilee's High Mountain - LSB 835

O God, we ask Your blessing As many are so ill.
You are the Holy great One; You promise and fulfill.
You are the Great Physician; You care when we're in pain.
Please help us through these tough times. Your will be done, we pray.

Your children cannot worship Together as we'd like,
But we are very thankful For ways we can unite.
Technology can help us; O how You do provide
A way to hear Your Gospel-- Good News of Jesus Christ.

Help us to share the burden In any way we can,
To help and love our neighbor, All those from every land.
'Til health restored allows us To gather once again
We praise You, blessed Jesus, With patience until then.

Though we are not together, You, God, are with us all.
You strengthen us and help us To live as You have called.
All glory we will give You— God Father, Spirit, Son.
You are our Hope forever-- In You the vic'try's won.
